MESSAGE

I am pleased to note that IMAGINDIA is running a national campaign to promote cleanliness and has been conducting awareness campaigns across several towns and cities of India. I am also happy to observe that the Clean India Day, this year would be observed on October 10, 2014.

Our Government is dedicated to ensure a clean India and develop a culture in the country where every citizen feels responsible to contribute to this effort. This, I am sure cannot be achieved without the active participation of organisations, such as IMAGINDIA.

I appreciate the commendable initiative taken by Imagindia Institute, for working ceaselessly on this issue and I wish the campaign a grand success.
